

Youth Media Producers Conference
The California Endowment / Building Healthy Communities
January 14-15, 2017
Doubletree Hilton Hotel, Sacramento, 2001 Point West Way

SATURDAY

12-12:30pm CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

12:30-1:30 LUNCH
Location: California Ballroom

1:30-3:30 PLENARY
Location: California Ballroom

Welcome & Opening Activity: Youth Advisory Board

Guest Speaker: Dana Griffin/ Reporter, KCRA Sacramento

3:30-4:00 Break

4:00-6:00 WORKSHOPS:
(Choose One)

Photography Technique:

Location: California Salon Room 1/2

Facilitators: Noe Montes, Professional Photographer/Maria Mathioudakis, Aja Project/Amber Amaya, Coachella Unincorporated/Famo Musa, Aja Project

In this workshop participants will learn digital photo techniques through hands on activities including the use of digital cameras. Participants will be asked to take photos of each other, and to engage in visual thinking strategies in order to digest the photos produced during the workshop. Come join us and try something new!

Loud and Proud:

Location: California Salon Room 3

Facilitators: Roque Armenta, Movement Strategies Center/Jane Carreter, The kNOW

Join youth and allies in learning how to create safe and brave spaces for LGBTQ communities. Session will cover LGBTQ herstory and introduce tools to develop a stronger understanding of gender and sexuality.

6:00-6:30 Break & Re-group:
Location: California Ballroom

6:30 DINNER & COMMUNITY EVENING
Location: Capitol Salon C
Art & Music Community Evening hosted by Sol Collective

SUNDAY

8:00-9:15a.m. BREAKFAST
Location: California Ballroom

9:15-11:15 MORNING WORKSHOPS:
(Choose One)

Quik Videos

Location: California Salon 1/2

Facilitators: Isaac Gonzalez, Access Sacramento/Gabriela Espinal, Media Arts Center/Samantha Silva, Boyle Heights Beat

We know learning sophisticated editing software can feel daunting and time-consuming. No worries, there's now an app for that. Make short-form videos in minutes and share your stories with a larger audience, using social media. [Please download the Quik video editing app before this workshop begins and come ready to edit with photos/videos in your camera roll.]

Got Data? Designing Infographics To Tell Stories

Location: California Salon 3

Facilitators: Cliff Lee, Youth Radio/Desmond Meagley, Youth Radio

In this workshop, we will share examples of Youth Radio infographics and walk participants through the process of converting data (interviews & surveys) to dynamic infographics to complement and tell stories. Participants will leave this workshop with a prototype of an infographic based on their own data.

11:15-11:25 Break

11:25-12:00 Recharge Activity: meet in hotel lobby

12:00-1:30 Lunch:
Location: California Ballroom

12:00-1:30 Lunch Focus Group
Location: California Salon 4
(Invited Participants)

1:30-3:00 AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS:

School to Prison Pipeline

Location: California Salon 1/2

Facilitators: Carlos Franco, MILPA East Salinas/Claudia Gonzalez, We'Ced/Olivia Rodriguez, Coachella Unincorporated

This workshop will explore how the same policies created to make schools "safer" actually have damaging, life-long consequences on young people. Youth will have the opportunity to reflect on how they can help divert the school-to-prison pipeline via powerful storytelling, healing and activism.

Amplifying our work and collaborative storytelling

Location: California Salon Room 3

(For program leaders and conference youth advisors)

Facilitators: Rebecca Martin, Youth Radio/ Tim Haydock, Youth Wire/ Miguel Bibanco, The kNOw

3:00-3:30

Break

3:30-4:30

Closing and Visioning for 2017: Youth Advisors

Location: California Ballroom

Facilitators: Youth Advisors and Rebecca Martin, Youth Radio

How can we stay connected as a network? And how will youth journalists drive that connection?

What are some issues that we can address together as a network?

What new tools can we harness to stay relevant in this changing media landscape?

4:30-4:45

Evaluations and Departures